

TENNESSEE

Temporary Driver License & Identification License Program

Temporary DL/ID Overview

Beginning October 1, 2007, Tennessee residents in the U.S. on a legal, temporary basis can apply for the new Temporary Driver License or Temporary Identification License.

Types of Temporary Documents

- Temporary Driver License
- Temporary Learner Permit
- Temporary Intermediate Driver License
- Temporary ID – Photo Identification Only

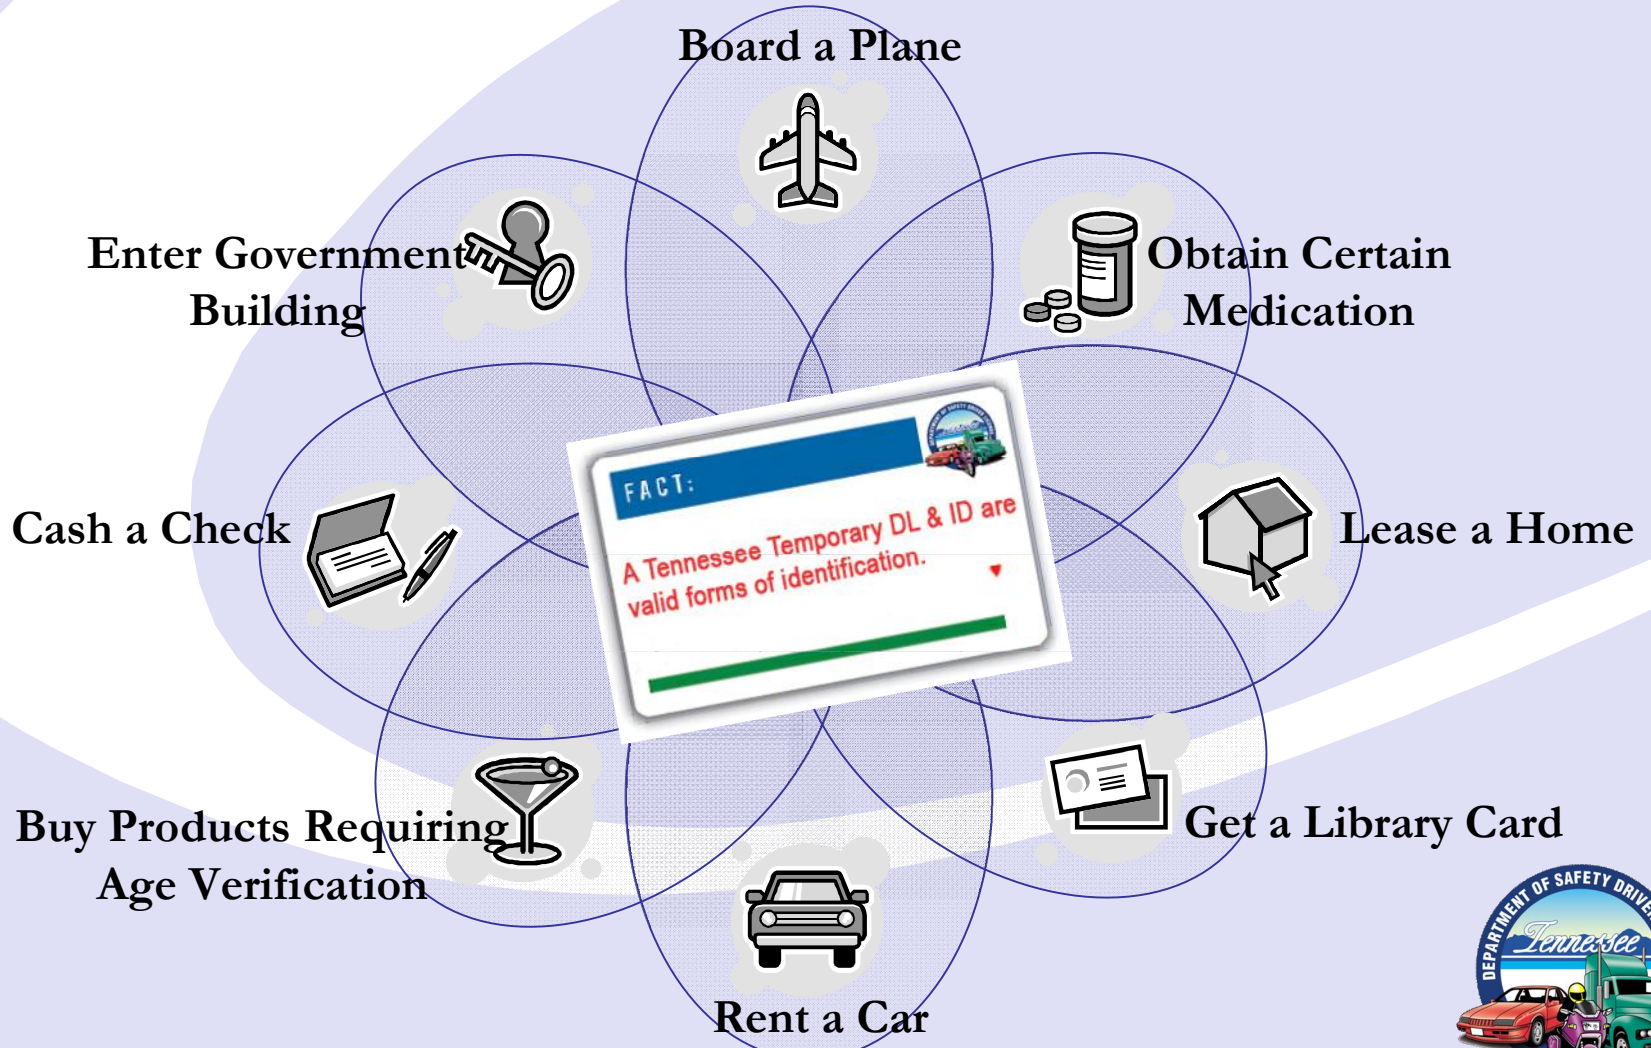

Temporary DL/ID Benefits

- The Temporary Driver License strengthens safety on the roads by ensuring drivers have been tested and know the rules of the road.
- The Temporary DL/ID serves as a valid form of government-issued identification.

Examples of Use:

Duration of Stay & Temporary DL/ID

- The expiration date of Temporary DL/ID coincides with the applicant's length of authorized stay in the U.S.
- The Temporary DL/ID is issued for a minimum period of 1 year, and may be issued for a maximum of 5 years.

Potential Applicants

- Temporary Workers
- Foreign Students
- Spouse/Family Members

Required Documentation

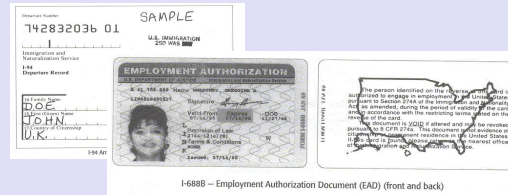

To qualify for a Temporary DL/ID, applicants must present documentation verifying identity, Tennessee residency and authorized length of stay in the U.S.

Examples of Required Documentation:

- Proof of Legal Presence

- Valid I-94, Passport & Visa
- Conditional Resident Card
- Certain Visas
- Employment Authorization Card

- Two forms of Proof of Identity

- Valid Passport
- Valid Out of State/Country Driver License
- Birth Certificate

- Two forms of Proof of Tennessee Residency

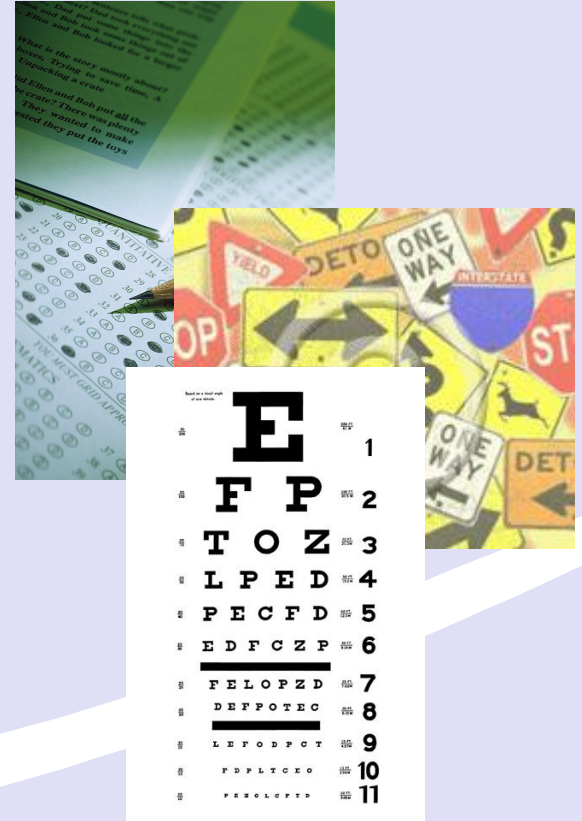

- Current Utility Bill
- Current Pay Stub
- Valid Car Registration

Required Testing

First-time Temporary DL applicants are required to pass a knowledge, vision and road skills test.

Exceptions to testing exist.

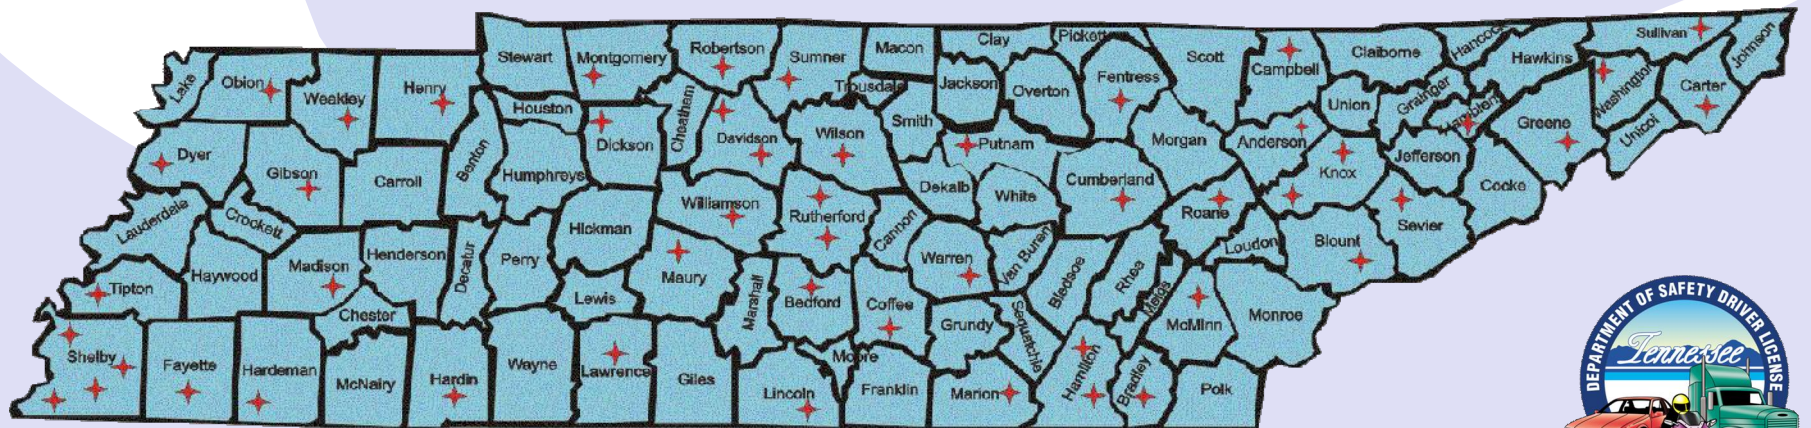

Testing Information

- Written test available in English, Japanese, Korean, Spanish
- Translation dictionary is allowed during written/computerized test
- Must understand enough English to communicate with DL examiner

Testing Facilities

Temporary DL/ID applicants must apply in person, and complete any required tests, at one of the 50 full-service driver license stations across the state.

Fee Information

In most cases, the cost for a Temporary Driver License is $19.50 and the cost for a Temporary ID is $9.50.

Replacing Your CFD

- The issuance of original CFDs ended 10/1/07.
- A CFD is valid until expiration, suspension, revocation or cancellation.
- A valid CFD does not automatically convert to a Temporary DL. Each person must qualify for a TDL.
- All applicants for a Temporary DL must present required documentation.
